RESEARCH POLICY

Yuvakshetra Institute of Management Studies (YIMS) is committed to fostering a vibrant research culture that promotes innovation, ethical inquiry, and interdisciplinary collaboration. The Research Policy is designed to support both faculty and student research by offering clear guidelines on ethical standards, funding, intellectual property rights, and academic partnerships. The institution aims to create a dynamic environment that encourages high-quality research contributing to societal and academic advancement.

Key Objectives and Initiatives:

- A dedicated Research Committee, functioning under the leadership of the Principal, includes a Research Convener and faculty representatives from the Arts, Science, and Commerce disciplines. This Committee, in association with the IQAC, is responsible for reviewing, guiding, and monitoring all research-related initiatives, including matters related to patents and copyrights.
- Regular organization of seminars, symposia, and conferences at the state, national, and international levels to engage faculty and students with current research trends and innovations.
- Provision of financial, infrastructural, library, and laboratory support to promote research activities among both staff and students.
- Organization of Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) at the institutional level, and encouragement for departments to conduct domain-specific FDPs to enhance research competencies.
- Commitment to maintaining high ethical standards in all research activities through continuous evaluation and oversight by the Research Committee.
- Encouragement and support for faculty and students to present papers at national and international academic events, thereby enhancing institutional academic visibility and knowledge exchange.
- Financial assistance to departments for hosting workshops, seminars, and academic discussions relevant to their disciplines.
- Research funding support for faculty members to present papers, attend academic programs, FDPs and publish their work in reputed journals and books.
- Strategic efforts to strengthen all eligible departments to achieve recognition as Research Centres, enhancing research opportunities and capacity building.
